Twelve Capital strengthens its focus on Sustainable & Climate Investing by hiring two experienced investment specialists with strong backgrounds in managing investments in the area of climate change.

By hiring two experienced investment specialists to focus on sustainable & climate investing the Group further strengthens its focus on climate change and ESG across its portfolios for institutional clients. Twelve Capital sees climate sustainability as an essential contributor for delivering long-term economic success and meeting clients' financial objectives.

Daniel King-Robinson and Tobias Engeli joined Twelve Capital in September 2021. Both specialists join from EFG Bank where they were equity advisors, managed the global recommended equity lists, various actively managed certificates and several large client mandates. As one area of specialisation, Daniel and Tobias have successfully developed and managed several climate change focussed products.

Nils Ossenbrink, Managing Partner, Products & Distribution, of Twelve Capital, said: "We are very happy to have Daniel and Tobias joining Twelve. Their extensive experience in climate transition and investment management will further meet increased demand from institutional investors to follow climate sustainability aspects in their portfolios. We are delighted to welcome our new colleagues."
